

Thomas Ebner

Professor Kepler Universitätsklinikum

Senior Clinical Embryologist

Executive Board member of Alpha Scientists in Reproductive Medicine and ESHRE

Thomas Ebner, PhD, graduated with honours from the University of Salzburg, Austria, in 1992. Completing his doctorate and post-doctoral thesis, he became a university professor in Linz, Salzburg and Graz. He has published more than 160 papers and book chapters as first and co-author. Research interests include time-lapse imaging, artificial gamete activation, non-invasive IVF selection processes and culture media. He was certified as a senior clinical embryologist by ESHRE in 2008. He was Executive Board Member of ALPHA - Scientists in Reproductive Medicine and ESHRE.