

Prof Eman Elgindy abbreviated CV

Professor Eman Elgindy is a consultant in reproductive medicine, professor Obstetrics and Gynecology, Zagazig University and Clinical Director of Rahem fertility centers, Egypt.

She is the director of Egypt IVF Registry from October 2020 till now.
She is ICMART Board Member and ICMART regional representative for Africa, 2022-2025

Currently, Prof. Elgindy is the Chairman for the Board of Trustee of EFRE, 2023-2027 and was President for EFRE International Conference 2024.

She obtained her MD from Zagazig University in Egypt and PhD in reproductive Medicine from Maastricht University, the Netherlands. Dr Elgindy authored and co-authored many research studies published in top international journals (like Green Journal, Human Reproduction Journal, Fertility Sterility, RBM Online and others). She had also written many chapters in international books. Her research interests include ovarian reserve, optimizing controlled ovarian stimulation protocols, fertility preservation and optimization of the outcome of vitrified-warmed cycles.