

Dr. Keshav Malhotra holds a masters degree in Clinical Embryology from Monash university Australia and is a ESHRE certified clinical embryologist. He is the Lab Director of Rainbow IVF and now the Director of Malhotra Embryology Training Academy. Dr. Malhotra is the Vice Chairman of Embryology for ISAR (Indian Society of Assisted Reproduction) and Chair of SIG Embryology for ASPIRE (Asia Pacific Initiative on Reproduction). He has worked of Key projects pertaining to Embryology in the country like the Occupational Standard for Embryologists (Healthcare Sector Skill Council India-2018) and the ISAR - Embryology Consensus 2019. He was selected as one of the ESHRE 5 for the year 2021.