

EMMA WHITNEY

Director of Embryology and Genetics

Profile

I am a practising HCPC registered clinical embryologist with 23 years of hands on experience. I care deeply about patient welfare and education and am also committed to ensuring that the wellbeing of embryologists is at the forefront of a clinics decision making process.

+447713258280

emmatheembryologist@gmail.com

www.emmatheembryologist.com

55 Broom Park, Teddington,
London TW119RS

emma-whitney-ivf

Education

BSc Batchelor of Science

Biomedical Science – 2:1

University of Portsmouth,

Sept 1999– June 2002

MSc Masters Degree

Imperial College London

Human Respoductive Biology

Sept 1999– June 2002

ACE Certificate

June 2007

RC PATH 1

August 2020

Expertise and other

PGT-M genetic disease

Patient care content

Embryology wellbeing advocate

Chair of Trustees for Fertility Action charity

Emma the embryologist on instagram with 10k followers

Podcast host, Hatching a plan

Regular appearances on other podcasts and instagram lives

Work Experience

Jan

2023

-

Now

Director of embryology and genetics

The Evewell Group

- Overseeing 2 IVF embryology teams
- Co-ordiating all scientific research
- Ensuring exceptional lab practice and patient care

Aug

2021

-

Jan

2023

Laboratory manager

The Evewell, West London

- Opening a brand new fertility clinic
- managing the IVF lab day to day
- All practising aspects of embryology

Dec

2019

-

Aug

2021

Genetics lead embryologist

The Lister Fertility Clinic, Chelsea

- Managing all genetic disease embryology patients
- Leading the laboratory team .
- All clinical aspects of embryology

Aug

2008

-

Dec

2019

Senior Embryologist

The Lister Fertility Clinic, Chelsea

- All clinical aspects of embryology
- PGT-M coordination

2003

-

2008

Trainee Embryologist/ Embryologist

St Bartholomew's centre for reproductive medicine

- Training in all aspects of embryology